Some people say

THERE IS NO GOD!

But IF there is NO GOD, then why are we so angry at Him? And IF there is NO GOD, then why do we blame him for everything that's wrong in the world? And IF there's NO GOD, then why are we bitter and feel like he's let us down?

Maybe our anger is just our heart's way of letting us know that we really do believe he's there.

Jesus said, "I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him." (Revelation 3:20)

Willing to find out if there's anybody on the other side of the door?
